Dr. David M. Rhoads

"Performing the Story"

A dynamic presentation of the way the scriptures would have been originally presented by bringing a new perspective to well known verses. Dr. Rhoads is a retired professor at Lutheran School of Theology in Chicago, New Testament, Emeritus and was ordained in 1968 where he served as pastor of St. John Lutheran Church Asheboro, N.C. Widely published, Rhoads is also the author of several books. He completed his MA degree from Oxford, and his Doctor of Philosophy from Duke.

Mark Schoepp

"Brain Gain"

Exercise, diet and play profoundly affect our brain function and can affect our efforts to give God our best. Current brain research will be discussed and connected to the positive impact on health and wellness. Mark currently serves as Wheat Ridge Ministries Church Relations Representative and has been active in many Faith Communities with a special focus on Family and Youth Ministry.

David Ludwig

"Worship through Music"

As a composer, pianist, organist and singer, you will enjoy and marvel at David Ludwig's talents and spiritual gifts. He has served as a music minister in both ECLA and LCMS congregations as well as at national gatherings.
